

Conclusion

In conclusion, NSDC recognises the significant challenges associated with maintaining schools and providing a broad and balanced curriculum in areas of low population and therefore low annual intakes. Whilst once again emphasising the District Council's preference for ensuring the longevity of North Clifton Primary School, NSDC is committed to working with both the County Council and the school's governing body to explore all available options and to finding an acceptable and workable solution.

Yours sincerely

Tim Dawson MRTPI
Lead Practitioner (Infrastructure) – Planning Policy & Infrastructure